

Topics – Cross Border Education and People to People Contact

- How can cross border education be provided?
- What are the impediments?
- Is there a public interest in removing those impediments?
- What inhibits that change in policy?
- How would you manage the reform?

How can cross border education be provided?

- Students mobility- exchanges, scholarships
- On-line courses
- Educator mobility
- Program mobility
- Provider mobility
- Work place experience

What are the impediments?

- Students mobility- exchanges, scholarships, self-funding
 - language and culture, financial issue, different system recognition, immigration policy, lack of information, quotas on foreign students, personal safety, right to work,
- On-line courses
 - quality, IPR, access to information
- Educator mobility
 - culture, infrastructure, immigration, international relations

What are the impediments?

- Program mobility
 - IP, recognition, content restriction,
- Provider mobility
 - license, rules on partnerships
- Work place experience
 - immigration, working visa,

Is there a public interest in removing those impediments?

- Students mobility- exchanges, scholarships, self-funding
- language and culture, financial issue, different system recognition, immigration policy, lack of information, quotas on foreign students, personal safety, right to work

Is there a public interest in removing those impediments?

- On-line courses

--quality, IPR, access to information

Is there a public interest in removing those impediments?

- Educator mobility
 - culture, infrastructure, immigration, international relations

Is there a public interest in removing those impediments?

- Program mobility
- IP, recognition, content restriction,

Is there a public interest in removing those impediments?

* Provider mobility

--license, rules on partnerships

Is there a public interest in removing
those impediments?

* Work place experience

--immigration, working visa,

Managing in change

- Supporters- consumers, employers, education sector industries,
- Ways-Package of policy(coherent),
- APEC's role- liberalization of educational trade, policy level commitment, international educational network,